ABOUT ME

I am in my sophomore year at the University of Oklahoma as an Instrumental Music Education major. My primary instructor is Brian Dobbins, although I have additionally studied with Andrew Cox, Chris McLaughlin, and Dr. Jace Vickers. I participate in many reputable ensembles: the OU Wind Symphony, Frontier Brass Band, and internationally competitive tuba-euphonium quartet TubaFour. I am also involved in the Pride of Oklahoma as a student leader, and I assist as a marching band tech at Tuttle High School.

My passion is to inspire, and I hope to be able to help you make the next step in your musical journey.

EXPECTATIONS

Communication and preparation are crucial for efficiency and effectiveness. As a respect for each other's time, timely communication is expected for lesson cancellations, etc. Please come to lessons prepared and on time. This will help benefit you as we will be able to accomplish more to attain your goals.

As I expect these of you, I also am obligated to uphold these expectations myself and to give my best effort to enhance your musicianship and reach for new goals.

SCHEDULING

If interested, please contact me by text or email so we may schedule a weekly time. As of the Fall 2023 semester, I am only available Tuesday afternoons and evenings.
